

GDPR and Data Protection Policy

Lawful Basis

Acme Corp processes personal data only where there is a lawful basis: consent, contract, legal obligation or legitimate interest. The basis for each processing activity is recorded in the data processing register.

Data Subject Rights

Individuals may request access, rectification, erasure and portability of their personal data. Requests must be fulfilled within 30 days and are logged for audit.

Data Retention

Personal data is retained only as long as necessary. Recruitment data is retained for 12 months, employee records for the duration of employment plus seven years, and access logs for 13 months.

Breach Notification

Personal data breaches likely to result in risk to individuals must be reported to the supervisory authority within 72 hours of discovery.
